

Please do not change the telephone privacy law. The businesses I do business with call when there is a problem or other important issues concerning my account. If they are able to start calling with any type of phone marketing, it will confuse consumers and cause consumers to possibly ignore information they need to heed OR create errors for more identity theft fraud on accounts.